

Designed to offer a more complete program for the students, assemblies covering subjects ranging from scientific lectures to student debates are given periodically throughout the school year. These programs, planned under the general supervision of Mr. A. O. Mathias, are presented in the huge Withrow auditorium which has a seating capacity of 1707. For the past years the guest speakers have been required to repeat their performances in order to accommodate the increasing enrollment of the school.

● assemblies vary student life