

LO NIMMO

BILL GILLILAND

JOHN HUHEEY

● Football! !—a magic word that stirs many varied emotions in America's vast throngs. For the average fan the word implies nine or ten hours of action-packed spectator sport and lusty cheering, but the athlete or coach feels its truer meaning and significance. Under the supervision of coaches Gilliland, Nimmo, and Huheey, a player must eat football, breathe football, and live football. Aside from brawn, the gridiron hopeful must have speed, stamina, the heart to play, and, most of all, love of the game. Although the toil and drudgery behind the scenes is not always fully appreciated, everyone enjoys the national sport and thrills to it.
