● varsity lettermen

• After any football season credit must be given where it is due and for this reason the lettermen of 49 are honored here. The players who received letters are proud of them not only because of the honor but also because of the long hard season of bruising bumps and bone-crushing blocks by which the lettermen earn their W's. These players are the Withrow varsity lettermen for this year. Jim Kimpf, E. Perfection in Pass Snagging. Remember the circus catch in the "X" game? Dick Ernst, H. B. Superb backfield man whose running led the team to victory. He not only made the Post's all city team in his junior year but also was named its captain. Jim Neison, Q. B. The triple-threat head man who called plays, ran, and passed
