

● tiger band adds color and

● Cool brisk autumn breezes, milling crowds, and colorful bands symbolize the most thrilling of Withrow's extra-curricular activities. Football, enjoyed by young and old alike, reigns supreme over Tigertown from early September to the latter part of November and commands the attention of thousands for every pigskin tussle. For these reasons it is no wonder that players and coaches strive so hard to better their record from year to year. In this school year of 48-49, the Tiger gridiron squad compiled a record unequaled at Withrow for the past four or five years. Although the squad was nosed out for the Public High School League Championship, acquired last year, it succeeded in piling up a more impressive rec-

