

Bully

Dribble

Interception

these sports attract g.a.a. members ●

● Ground sticks, ground sticks, ground sticks, bully! The center passes to the wing and the hockey season is off! All G.A.A.'ers love the terrific hockey battles in the fall. Through wind, sleet, and rain, these hockey fiends brave the weather to fight for the championship. One of the four major sports, hockey calls almost seventy-five girls to the fields to show their ability in passing, bullying, and roll-ins. Hockey at Withrow gains the interest of the entire school when the women of the faculty pit their skill against that of the varsity hockey team. To climax a successful season, these G.A.A. girls journeyed to Kay Wilderson's back yard for a rip-roaring time at their annual picnic. In spite of bruised knees and sprained ankles, hockey will always be one of the best loved sports for girls and continue to interest the athletic at Withrow.