● This year many interesting speakers and other programs were provided for the members of Literatas, the Honorary English Club. Sophomore and freshmen girls are admitted to the club after writing a short story or poem judged acceptable by the members. Their meetings, conducted by Jean Toerner, are held on alternate Thursdays under the supervision of Mrs. Edith Moore, the sponsor. The girls were busy this year with bake sales to provide money for the scholarship they hope to give in the near future. They had parties on various holidays and at Christmas presented a needy family with a huge basket of food and small luxuries.
