ARTHUR RHOLLINS, BUSINESS

VIRGINIA BREWER, LITERARY

● Early in September the machinery for the production of the Withrow annual was set into motion. In 220, Miss Green, Bob Rahe, and Carolyn House organized the art staff. Mr. Rhollins called in Eunice Oliverio and Barbara Willson to 126 and the business staff was in operation. Zane Thornton and Bill Taylor stopped in 102 to see Miss Brewer and immediately plans were completed for the organization of written material; while Jean Wheatley tracked down advertisements for the year book of '49.
