

● tower news and

● As the school paper, Tower News, rolls off the clattering presses, the busy home-room representatives hurry to distribute them while the news is still fresh. Like news vendors in a large community they take the orders, then faithfully deliver the news. It is up to these boys and girls to keep the news-hungry Withrowites supplied and to sell the large quantity of papers necessary to continue production.

