

LEFT TO RIGHT: D. Teagarden, J. Bolce, D. Kuck, J. Wuenker, B. Forbriger, N. Simons, K. Kline, R. Giesel, D. Martin, J. Swanson, W. Lewis

This year Gens Togata presented their comedy, "Jusius Caesar," as an assembly program. The play was written, directed, and produced by Miss Ruth Grove, the club's sponsor. Dawn Martin, a U.C. student, and former member of the club, played the part of Julius Caesar. The musical score included parodies of such songs as "Coax Me a Little Bit," "O Celeste Aida," "I've Been Working On The Railroad," "No, No, A Thousand Times No!" and "Onesy, Twosy," plus numerous others.

LEFT TO RIGHT: J. Wuenker, E. Bockstiegle, H. Bain, D. Dickerson, C. Zealy, E. Hartman, B. Burringer, H. Henstenberg, J. Bolce. PROSTRATE: D. Martin

