

PEOPLE AT WITHROW

Here is the true life and spirit of our school—her people. From the most naive freshman to the most sophisticated senior her student body forms Withrow's character. How fortunate are these students, to be guided by a wise and sincerely interested administrative staff and faculty! We present here examples of the many interesting facets of Withrow's personality. Her external appearance is one of great beauty; but of what importance would this be without her matching beauty of character? Looking at the pages which follow, we hope you will perceive what a truly interesting personality these, her people, give their Alma Mater—Withrow High.
