

MR. MATHIAS, ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

MR. WILBUR, JUNIOR HIGH PRINCIPAL

WITHROW'S TRIUMVIRATE LEADS ON

To keep up with the members of Withrow's faculty is impossible for they are always busy.

Teachers at Withrow are not merely instructors; they are friends who are always willing to help. Of the many leaders at Withrow, Mr. Mathias is one of the busiest. Besides his duties as assistant principal, he is advisor of Sigma Gamma, councilor of freshmen and junior boys, and supervisor of many activities about the school. Another busy person at Withrow is Mr. Wilbur, principal of Junior High, who is always kept on the alert. One of the most important aspects of his position is to prepare the "effies" for their four years of work in the senior high. In addition to her many other activities, being dean of girls keeps Miss Agerter occupied. Included in her daily work is the issuing of absence excuses, planning careers, solving problems, and presiding over Dux Femina.
