

MISS ADRA DICKINSON, Latin and American history teacher, has many interests. She enjoys traveling and reading, but concerts are her first love.

Relaxing after school, MISS HELEN DORNETTE, Junior High science teacher, enjoys listening to good music or hiking.

Encouraging her Spanish pupils to travel to Spanish-speaking countries, and being co-sponsor of Spanish Club keeps MISS EPPINGER very busy.

MISS ANGELINE FELS, called by her friends "Porky" because of her hobby of pig raising, returns during vacation to her farm where she enjoys country life.

Among many other duties, MISS JOSEPHINE FEYEREISEN is kept busy instructing her pupils in the art of typing and shorthand.

Once a student teacher here, MR. EMERY GATES now holds classes in English. He has two interesting hobbies, the collecting of rare coins and the collecting of medals.

MR. WILLIAM GILLILAND—When the Tiger Eleven's new "proud papa" is not busy coaching the team, he enjoys his second favorite sport—hunting.

Besides being a teacher of salesmanship, advertising, and junior business training, MISS GARNET GOOLEY is manager of the ticket sales.

MISS STELLA GREEN—Staying late is nothing new for "Mom". She delights in spending every spare moment of her time advising the Annual art and add staffs.

MISS RUTH GROVE, teacher of Latin, devotes her leisure time to sponsoring Gens Togata, studying archaeology, and acting as director and soprano soloist of her church choir.

MISS ETHEL HARTSELL, teacher of history and algebra enjoys gardening and cooking.

MR. ALBERT HENSEL teaches Junior High gym students, sponsors G.A.L., and supervises the hall guards. As a hobby he likes swimming.

As head of Withrow's English Department, MISS MARY HILDEBRANDT has great responsibility. Her outside interests are her garden and her paintings.

When she is not teaching Civics and Consumer Education, MISS ELIZABETH HINES is an enthusiastic sport fan.

MR. FRANK HOFFMEISTER, industrial arts teacher, has indoor and outdoor hobbies. He plays golf, enjoys gardening, and collects antiques.

MR. FRED HOLDER teaches mechanical and architectural drawing. He is chairman of a board, the board he uses when he catches someone smoking.

MISS THERESA HOLLAND, teacher of math (in all its phases), enjoys entertaining friends in her home.

MR. CLAYTON HOWE—Besides giving quizzes and sponsoring Physics Club still finds time to settle down with that latest mystery.

MR. C. M. HUNT, American history and algebra teacher, appoints gate-men for football games and spends his free time in his garden or Bowling.

This busy head of the Botany Department, MRS. ELVERTA HUTCHINSON, spends most of her time on her farm and is responsible for Withrow's gardens.

MISS HELEN HUTCHISON, though sponsor of Senior Dance Club, is a physical education instructor, and finds time to enjoy reading and the theater.

