

MR. HOWARD A. RAY junior high woodwork teacher, may often be found out of doors enjoying hunting, fishing, and gardening.

During last summer's vacation MISS MARGARET REHRING, assistant librarian, travelled to Mexico.

MR. F. L. REUTER—"Doc" has been a gym teacher ever since Withrow began. He coaches cross country track, and gym.

A junior high English teacher, MISS ETHEL REYNOLDS is interested in languages, especially Spanish. She enjoys housekeeping and cooking too.

MR. ARTHUR RHOLLANS, who teaches bookkeeping and business law, keeps an eagle eye on the lunchroom. He is also business advisor of the Annual.

MISS MABEL ROBINSON, located in the gym during school hours, sponsors after-school swimming, life-saving, Swimming Club and G. A. A.

MISS ESTHER ROCKEL co-sponsors the Home Economics Club and teaches household arts. She finds time for pet hobby, amateur movies

The favorite diversions of MISS MARJORIE ROSENBERGER, American history, English, and Speech teacher, are bridge, the theater, and Thalian Club.

Although she teaches mathematics, MISS MARY ROWELL is a very talented artist. She is also very fond of plants.

The fact that she is mathematics teacher may account for the accuracy of MISS ADELAIDE SANDER'S golf shots.

MR. HERBERT F. SCHIRMER, Arts and Crafts teacher, devotes much of his time to interesting sidelines—bowling, and writing testimonials.

MRS. DOROTHY SCOTT, sponsor of Archery, Volley-ball, Bowling, Dancing and Pony Chorus, teaches gym and loves the activities she sponsors.

MISS NELLIE SEAY teaches shorthand and typing. She likes to read good books and enjoys traveling.

MR. PAUL SEAY, as treasurer, is head of the Finanical Department of Withrow. He teaches many Commercial Subjects.

MISS LUELLA SHAFFER teaches world history and algebra. She is a lover of the theater as well as a sports enthusiast.

MR. HAROLD SHERMAN, teacher of history and journalism, supervises classes of student teachers and sponsors Tower News Lierary Staff and Tennis Club.

MR. HOWARD SHULL, junior high teacher of metal work, likes to hunt, bowl, and work in his repair shop during his leisure time.

Although teaching English keeps MISS JESSIE SIBCY busy, she manages to find time for reading and housekeeping, both of which she enjoys.

MR. JOSEPH SIMONS teaches Junior High English. He has a passion for ballet and lunch

Better known as "Smittie," MR. GEORGE SMITH teacher of harmony, is our bandleader, and conducts the Presentation Orchestra and Minstrels.

Household arts and science are taught by MISS MARY SMITH, who considers New England her second home. Her hobby is collecting bells.

