

Mr. Mathias . . .

Mr. Mathias's admirable ease in stepping from his position as a mathematics teacher to that of assistant principal, and then to the principalship itself makes Withrow proud of him. Even more appreciated is his busy and energetic work as a counselor, and as a member of local, state, and federal teaching organizations; and, above all, his own unaffected friendliness.