

Mr. Harry Hanson, the laundry man in the boys gym, plans to retire next year unless his hours are reduced. Before coming to Withrow he worked for thirteen years at the Hyde Park Library. After nineteen years as caretaker he retired and took a job the following year as laundry man. Except for the long hours he has found his job very enjoyable.

