

"George! This is really a big school! I'll have to break everything down into three main sections."

Keepers—Withrow's administration, a faculty of high quality.

Kids—effies through seniors, they make up the student body.

Capers—those ever-important, exciting doings that make even the most enthusiastic long for a moment of peace.

