

An informal conference with Mr. Mathias helps many a senior boy to decide the perplexing problems concerning college.

To the senior, this is a year of decision. During the school year, he has to choose between a career and college. The senior planning to enter the business world weighs job opportunities and faces the ordeal of interviews. Others are busy with college entrance examinations. Fortunately, Withrow advisers offer competent and experienced guidance to help these upper classmen arrive at wise plans for the future.

and welcoming guidance of experienced educators.