

132 expert guides lead 3054 withrowites to wisdom

Withrow's efficient and competent management is in the capable hands of Mr. Mathias: friend, guide, and principal.

If Withrow may be compared to the clock perched high on its tower, the students become the face of the clock, seen by everyone. But the faculty represent the works of the clock with the principal, Mr. Mathias, as that indispensable main spring. Without its carefully-coordinated staff of educators, Withrow would no longer exist. Each time the hands of this "clock" move, they mark off a small but noteworthy task completed by a teacher to help Withrow "tick."
