

those inert intellects with patience and proficiency.

Office work is often tedious, but our secretaries keep their pleasant manner. Dictation, correspondence, and mimeographing are some chores done to help "Big" and "Little" Withrow run smoothly. Miss Allen, who is responsible for the bulletin, also has a sweet side, her candy buyers testify. Miss Schwartz teaches the telephone system to student aides. And what a time she has!

Mrs. Bolmer, Mr. Wilbur's helper in "Little Withrow" is in charge of requisitions and the Junior High Bulletin. Miss Hoefle, Mr. Mathias' secretary, is very popular with the faculty, as she is paymaster. She also handles correspondence and graduation credits. Mr. Vigard's assistant, Mrs. Hammann, is kept busy doing clerical work and aiding in the management of our bookroom.
