Place one green freshie in a test tube. Pour in sports, dances, and two measures of sorority and frat parties. Carefully add an explosive mixture of homework, exams and minstrels. Allow to age, exposing to band, choir, physicals, and vocational guidance courses. Mix in assemblies, TV appearances, and Junior Town Meeting debates. Slowly sift in Frisch's Big Boys, officerships, and scholarships, and the result is a well-rounded senior personality.

Junior Town Meeting experts debate "Are Exams Necessary?" A vacuum tube, not daughter's grades, interest Dad.
