

Holloman lets loose with his favorite underhand shot to the chagrin of a Woodwardite. Plunkett connects for an easy two-pointer to help swamp Central 56-35. Lanky Plunkett hoists his 6-6 frame high into the air to score against Hughes.

The freshman hoopsters, coached by Mr. Joe Hedges, compiled a commendable record of nine wins and five losses during the '50-'51 hardwood campaign. Four of the reversals were by a total margin of 17 points. Central Vocational spoiled the first year men's PHSL Tournament aspirations. Captain Tad Schroeder, high point man, Don Heisel, Bob Lewis, Denny Nabors, and Ray Sutherland showed real promise and ability.
