

Having lost nine lettermen and veteran pitcher Hal Broerman from the '50 OHIO CLASS A Championship club, baseball coach John Huheey found inexperience his main problem this spring. However, hurlers Dan Lamblin, Jack Borcharding, and Will Ernst formed a classy triumvirate. Bob Work also saw hill duty. Will Anshutz did the catching, while Ralph Nelsen (1B), Ron Ott (2B), Ted Carter (SS), and Bob Bick (3B) held down the infield posts. Charlie Brandenburg (LF), who also caught, Dan McGoron (CF), and Curly Willson (RF) roamed the outfield. Tom Lewis (2B), Bob Barbeau (C-OF), and fly chasers, Bob Jones, Dick Biedinger, and Ron Deller saw service, as did Tad Schroeder. As of May 1, the Tigers had an 8-4 mark, and Mr. Melvin Russell's Reserve team had compiled a 3-0 record.

Upper picture: 1950 Championship Trophy. Lower pictures: Hal Broerman; Curly Willson; Will Ernst; Charlie Brandenburg.

