

Volleyball action—accelerated energy.

Roaming hikers rest while winding roads beckon them on.

Out of 24 teams, guess who won G.A.A. volleyball tournament for the third consecutive year? Yes, you're right; it was the Mighty Mice, six girls out of 300. Turning from the cozy indoors to the colorful outdoors observe twenty-one happy hikers trudging along after Mrs. Lally, the spark plug of G. A.A. Outing Club. Every Saturday morning these energetic girls travel over towering hills and sloping doles, allegedly enjoying every inch of their pedestrian odyssey.
