

The sprightly "Tar Nooze" reporters are processors of weekly features, fiction and fact.

Ambitious advertising, business, and art staffs work harmoniously to put Tower News.

Been wondering who's the little man with the big satchel? He's head photographer Marc Routt, complete with camera, out on the trail of a picture. He and cartoonist Bill Drier furnish the pictorial material for Tower News, while Marilyn Ratcliffe, advertising manager, dreams up those promotion schemes. Don't forget the fifty-four staff reporters who cover the beat for Withrow's Wednesday morning special edition of facts and foolishness.
