

A French student exhibits the Norman garb.

French Club, upper picture. Standing front—M. Ashman; C. Platt; B. McKinley; J. Batsche. Seated—L. Murphy; J. Bremer; M. Jones; I. King; J. Hain; M. Box; G. Simester; J. Schubert; M. Wilson; J. Betz; J. Hoxie. Standing back—E. Low; M. Guenther; S. Ronsheim; J. Pieper; L. Curtis; C. Frohmeyer; N. Loose; T. George; C. Suermann; J. Weaver; R. Rushing; M. Simmons; D. Ruess; E. Saar; M. Heckle; P. Bauer; C. Corbly; M. Fluker; Miss Schroeder; C. Walker; L. Tabor.

"Parlez-vous Francais?" is not just an expression to members of French Club. Actually, they do speak French at monthly meetings under the leadership of Carolyn Platt. Having a good time learning is the object of this group. (Seeing Miss Helen Schroeder, sponsor, hit a homer at the club picnic is an end-of-the year bonus.)

such as the latin, spanish,

History Club members are learning to appreciate one of America's greatest heritages, the secret ballot.

