"Really, I think you'd make the most wonderful British gentleman."

Rollicking laughter filled the auditorium April 6 and 7 as Withrow students viewed the Thalian presentation, "Our Miss Brooks." Miss Brooks, a role based on the famous radio personality, snagged everybody's line with her befuddled efforts to produce a melodrama of the Far East; to promote marriage between the gym coach and herself; and to play cupid for two of her cherished pupils.
