

Outstanding in the intricate mechanism controlling the 1951 Withrow Minstrel show are (above) "Smittie", Nancy Brown that polished quality which makes Withrow's annual show tops is due, not only to the supervision of the school's maestro, but also to the persistence and frenzied labor of the many other people who become