B.I.E. Day! That was the title given the day on which Dr. Carl M. Horn's plan to create a better understanding between business and education was realized. Teachers were to acquire first hand knowledge of industry by taking specially-guided tours through various factories and stores. This idea, worked out successfully in several cities, came to Cincinnati from Dayton. The activities, supervised by the Chamber of Commerce B.I.E. Day Committee, began early Wednesday, October 18, when nearly 2000 teachers from all the Hamilton County High Schools assembled in Music Hall to receive a short outline of the day's schedule. The teachers were then taken by chartered busses to their assigned companies where they were told the corporation's background and organization. Tours through these factories or stores ended with special luncheons at which corporation officials lectured briefly. Soon after lunch the teachers returned to Music Hall ending this very stimulating and entertaining day. Cincinnati's initial B.I.E. Day, which was considered a real success, was followed on April 19 with a reciprocal arrangement with businessmen visiting the schools to learn how they function.

The educators met at Music Hall before embarking on their tours.

Almost eighty businesses and industries in Cincinnati were visited.

With visions of quizzes still in their heads, students absorb more knowledge from their friends they refer to as teachers.

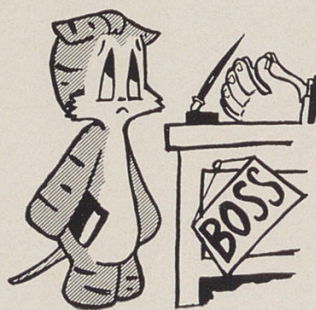

In a lecture, it has been said, "Notes go from the professor's notebook to the student's notebook without passing through the minds of either;" but this problem has been overcome in the present-day classroom. Of course, an outline is needed; but for the icy formality of old-fashioned schools has been substituted a relaxing discussion that may stray to other fields and makes the class one to be shared, not shunned.

An informal conference with Mr. Mathias helps many a senior boy to decide the perplexing problems concerning college.

To the senior, this is a year of decision. During the school year, he has to choose between a career and college. The senior planning to enter the business world weighs job opportunities and faces the ordeal of interviews. Others are busy with college entrance examinations. Fortunately, Withrow advisers offer competent and experienced guidance to help these upper classmen arrive at wise plans for the future.

132 expert guides lead 3054 withrowites to wisdom

Withrow's efficient and competent management is in the capable hands of Mr. Mathias: friend, guide, and principal.

If Withrow may be compared to the clock perched high on its tower, the students become the face of the clock, seen by everyone. But the faculty represent the works of the clock with the principal, Mr. Mathias, as that indispensable main spring. Without its carefully-coordinated staff of educators, Withrow would no longer exist. Each time the hands of this "clock" move, they mark off a small but noteworthy task completed by a teacher to help Withrow "tick."

and social adjustment. these advisers also instruct

Sophomore and junior boys can always count on Mr. Vigard for helpful advice. As if his numerous duties as assistant principal were not enough, he is also responsible for managing the bookroom and the student store, both of which are housed in the same room on the first floor. Equally typical of the high quality of Withrow administrators, Miss Agerter, dean of girls, helps many puzzled pupils make the right decisions. The senior girls' honorary society, Dux Femina, is sponsored by Miss Agerter. Through her influence, high standards of scholastic achievement and service are maintained.

Withrow Junior High proudly claims Mr. Wilbur as its head. An assistant principal, he establishes junior high policies and the program of studies so that "Effies" and "E-flats" are prepared to meet the difficulties of senior high school. He trains, disciplines, and aids seventh and eighth graders.

New school counselor and adviser of freshman boys, Mr. Rudolf has proved his worth by able handling of boys' study halls and junior vocational conferences. Coming from a smaller school, he says that he's walked endless halls and climbed countless flights of stairs at Withrow.

As adviser of freshmen girls, Miss Murphy, school counselor, helps them make out their annual programs. Under her wing, confused "freshies" soon become oriented to life at Withrow. Another duty for which she is recognized is her efficient supervision of Minstrel costumes.

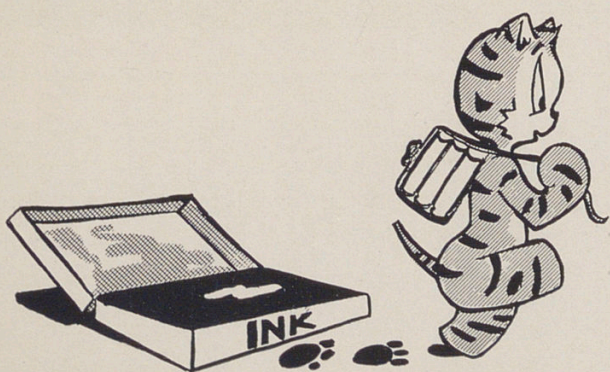

Mrs. Konrad, the assistant to Miss Agerter, takes care of withdrawals, census, and study halls for girls. She is also the adviser of Tip Toppers, a post suiting her height. Her noteworthy ambition is to get all the girls to school on time just one day of the year. (It's never happened yet.)

those inert intellects with patience and proficiency.

Office work is often tedious, but our secretaries keep their pleasant manner. Dictation, correspondence, and mimeographing are some chores done to help "Big" and "Little" Withrow run smoothly. Miss Allen, who is responsible for the bulletin, also has a sweet side, her candy buyers testify. Miss Schwartz teaches the telephone system to student aides. And what a time she has!

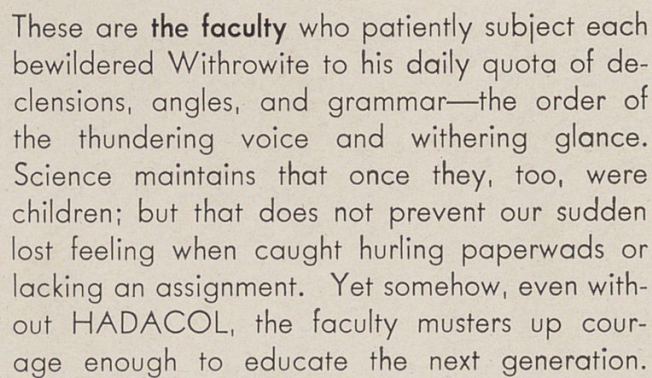

Mrs. Bolmer, Mr. Wilbur's helper in "Little Withrow" is in charge of requisitions and the Junior High Bulletin. Miss Hoefle, Mr. Mathias' secretary, is very popular with the faculty, as she is paymaster. She also handles correspondence and graduation credits. Mr. Vigard's assistant, Mrs. Hammann, is kept busy doing clerical work and aiding in the management of our bookroom.

First stop of the day for all teachers is the main office where they punch the time clock and swarm around mail boxes.

thus withrow is rightfully proud of its able staff.

Place one green freshie in a test tube. Pour in sports, dances, and two measures of sorority and frat parties. Carefully add an explosive mixture of homework, exams and minstrels. Allow to age, exposing to band, choir, physicals, and vocational guidance courses. Mix in assemblies, TV appearances, and Junior Town Meeting debates. Slowly sift in Frisch's Big Boys, officerships, and scholarships, and the result is a well-rounded senior personality.

Sports of today represent an era of highly-specialized athletics. Nowadays innovations such as intricate formations, superior deception, and careful planning are characteristic of the outstanding teams. For a great part, these better squads are the product of first class coaching. A successful coach must be versatile. He must not only have a thorough knowledge of his particular sport and a love for it, but he must be a leader of young men. He must earn the respect and confidence of his players. Withrow can certainly be proud of its coaching staff. The Tiger mentors have molded their material into smooth-functioning units. As a result of this competent instruction, the Tigers have hung up notable marks. By teaching sportsmanship and teamwork along with fundamentals, Withrow's ten-man staff exemplifies what is meant by "real coaches."

Block! Tackle! Punt! Pass! Does that remind you of anything? "Withrow's football team!" should be the instant response. In mid-August varsity candidates began practice in preparation for fall hostilities. Top strategists—Bill Gilliland, head coach; Stan Klimczak, line coach; and Alkie Richards, back-field coach—shaped the orange-clad stalwarts into a coordinated unit. The team worked offensively from a quick opening T-formation and used six basic defensive patterns to good advantage.

Through the combined efforts of Bill Holloman (72) and his own interference, a Walnut Hills Eagle makes a crash landing.

After opening the '50 campaign with five straight wins, the Tigers slumped to end with a 5-3-1 season record and fourth place in the P.H.S.L. However, fine team spirit offset the squad's lack of depth. The Withrow eleven rolled up 212 points to opponents' 117, and executed football perfection in crushing out-of-state foe Shortridge 52-0.

After snaring an aerial, End Holloman (72) tangles with a swarm of West Hi defenders. Gene Burrell is the other Tiger.

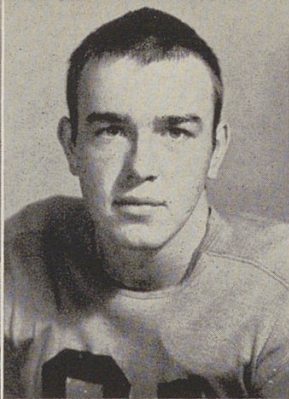

Co-Captain Jim Leonard lurches at Purcell's Leonard.

"Tex" Lyons (70) gallops for yardage against West Hi.

Withrow's "football farm clubs" which develop talent are the Reserve and Freshman football aggregations. During the '50 season Mr. Hedges' yearlings won six and lost one, hitting their peak in defeating a strong Purcell club 7-0. The Reserve squad, coached by Mr. Huheey, copped seven and dropped only one. Their best showing was a 41-0 shellacking of Hughes. Both teams finished on top in their respective PHSL leagues. All game equipment is entrusted to the football managers who also act as water boys, assist referees, and help Mr. Wirth who serves as team trainer. Meanwhile, the drum majors and majorettes provide entertainment for the victory-hungry fans, while the players take a well-earned rest during halftime. The cheerleaders also rouse the fans' enthusiasm, and remind the struggling players that, win or lose, there's a school behind them.

Given: the tangy smell of sizzling wienies; flashing colors of teams urged on by lusty, demanding cries of the crowd; the salty taste of fresh popcorn; the thorough drenching by sudden cloudbursts, dampening body but not spirit; the biting chill of winds that run up sales of drinks and sandwiches; the turbulence of boisterous pep assemblies; the zest of rare autumn-like days . . . thrills holds sway.

The spirited playing of the Withrow band offers competition for the most exciting of football jousts. Headed by the confident major and majorettes, formations such as the impressive "W" and tower are enacted at half-time. Stirring marches, shining brass, resplendent orange and black uniforms—yes, this must be the band. It rates a special place in the heart of every student.

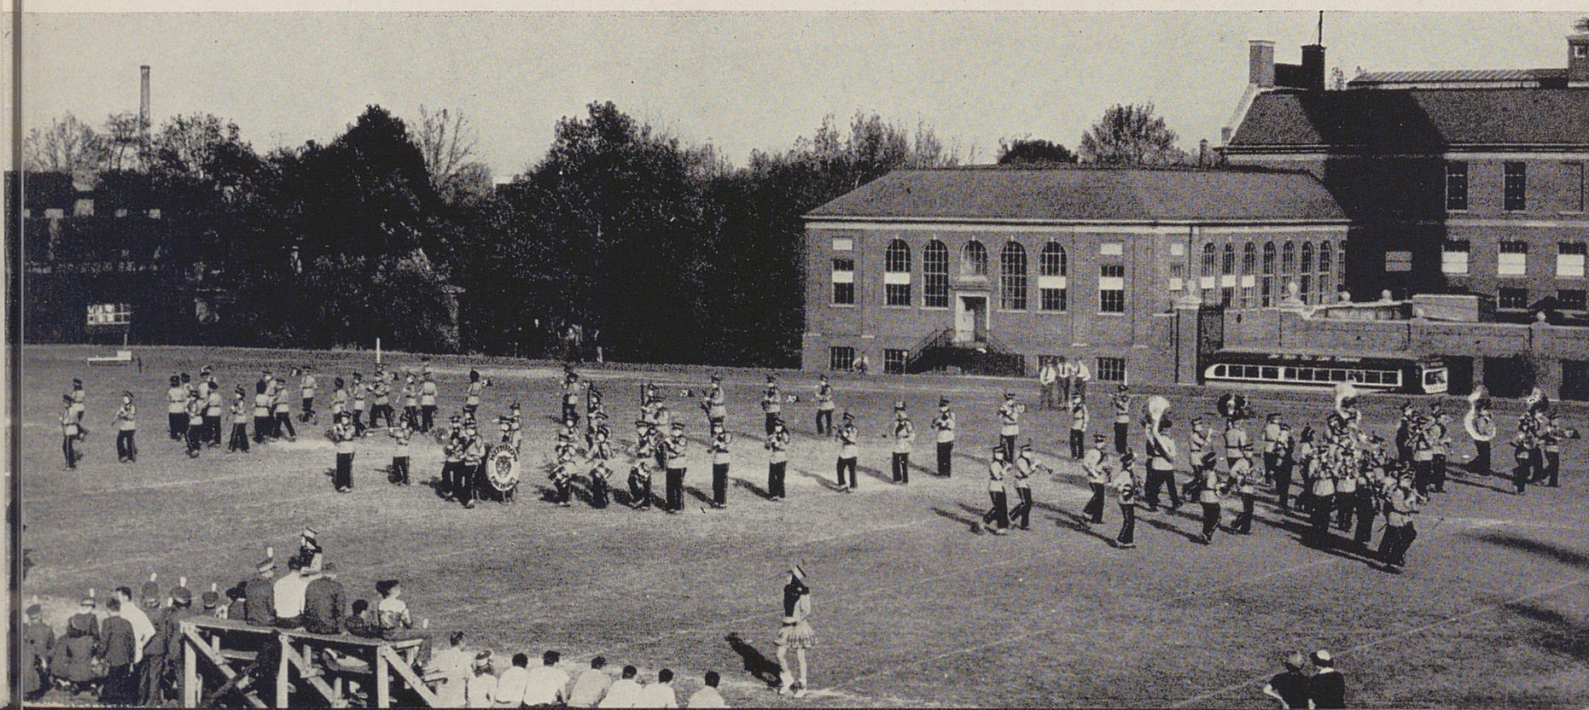

Macklin gains on end run, but Central stuns Orange and Black.

These cheerleaders raise the spirit—students raise the roof.

The succession of lines, angles, and curves fashioned by the band suggests the shifting patterns of wind-ruffled water.

"over hill, over dale," describes cross country.

The thud of spikes ushered in Mr. Nimmo's first year as Cross Country mentor. Withrow's varsity, composed of Bill Bailey, Tom Gillespie, Frank Goodell, Bill Gray, Gene Segar, Al Tevis and Jim Wilson, took third place in the city meet held on three successive Saturdays at Avon Fields. The combined scores determined the winner. The junior cross-country team also did very well, garnering first place in the junior city meet.

gym team's muscle-men are at home on apparatus.

In the course of their season (November-March) the Gym Team made one of its best showings in recent years. Mr. Klimczak, a newcomer to Withrow, took over the team this year and coached it to fourth place, despite the disadvantage of scanty practice space and no uniforms. Standout gymnasts were Captain Johnson, Davis, and Camp.

basketball

So round, so firm, so fully-inflated, so free and easy in the basket! What? Why, it's basketball, the best-attended and fastest-moving of all high school athletics. Along about the first of December the hardwood echoes with the pounding of feet and the bouncing of balls as the hoop season opens. Speed and agility, coordination, endurance, and quick thinking unite to make a good basketball team. The '50-'51 Tiger cagers proved to be one of the best Orange and Black quintets produced at Withrow in recent years.

Withrow's '50-'51 reserve quintet, after a fine start, faltered to finish with four victories against ten setbacks. The Tiger Cubs sent 392 points swishing through the hoops to their opponents' 465. Leading scorer Jim Hofferth accounted for 67 markers. Coach Allen Richards felt that the squad's best showing was against Woodward, when the Cubs came from behind to win and in doing so clearly demonstrated their indomitable spirit.

Holloman lets loose with his favorite underhand shot to the chagrin of a Woodwardite. Plunkett connects for an easy two-pointer to help swamp Central 56-35. Lanky Plunkett hoists his 6-6 frame high into the air to score against Hughes.

The freshman hoopsters, coached by Mr. Joe Hedges, compiled a commendable record of nine wins and five losses during the '50-'51 hardwood campaign. Four of the reversals were by a total margin of 17 points. Central Vocational spoiled the first year men's PHSL Tournament aspirations. Captain Tad Schroeder, high point man, Don Heisel, Bob Lewis, Denny Nabors, and Ray Sutherland showed real promise and ability.

on attack and on defense, the tigertown quintet

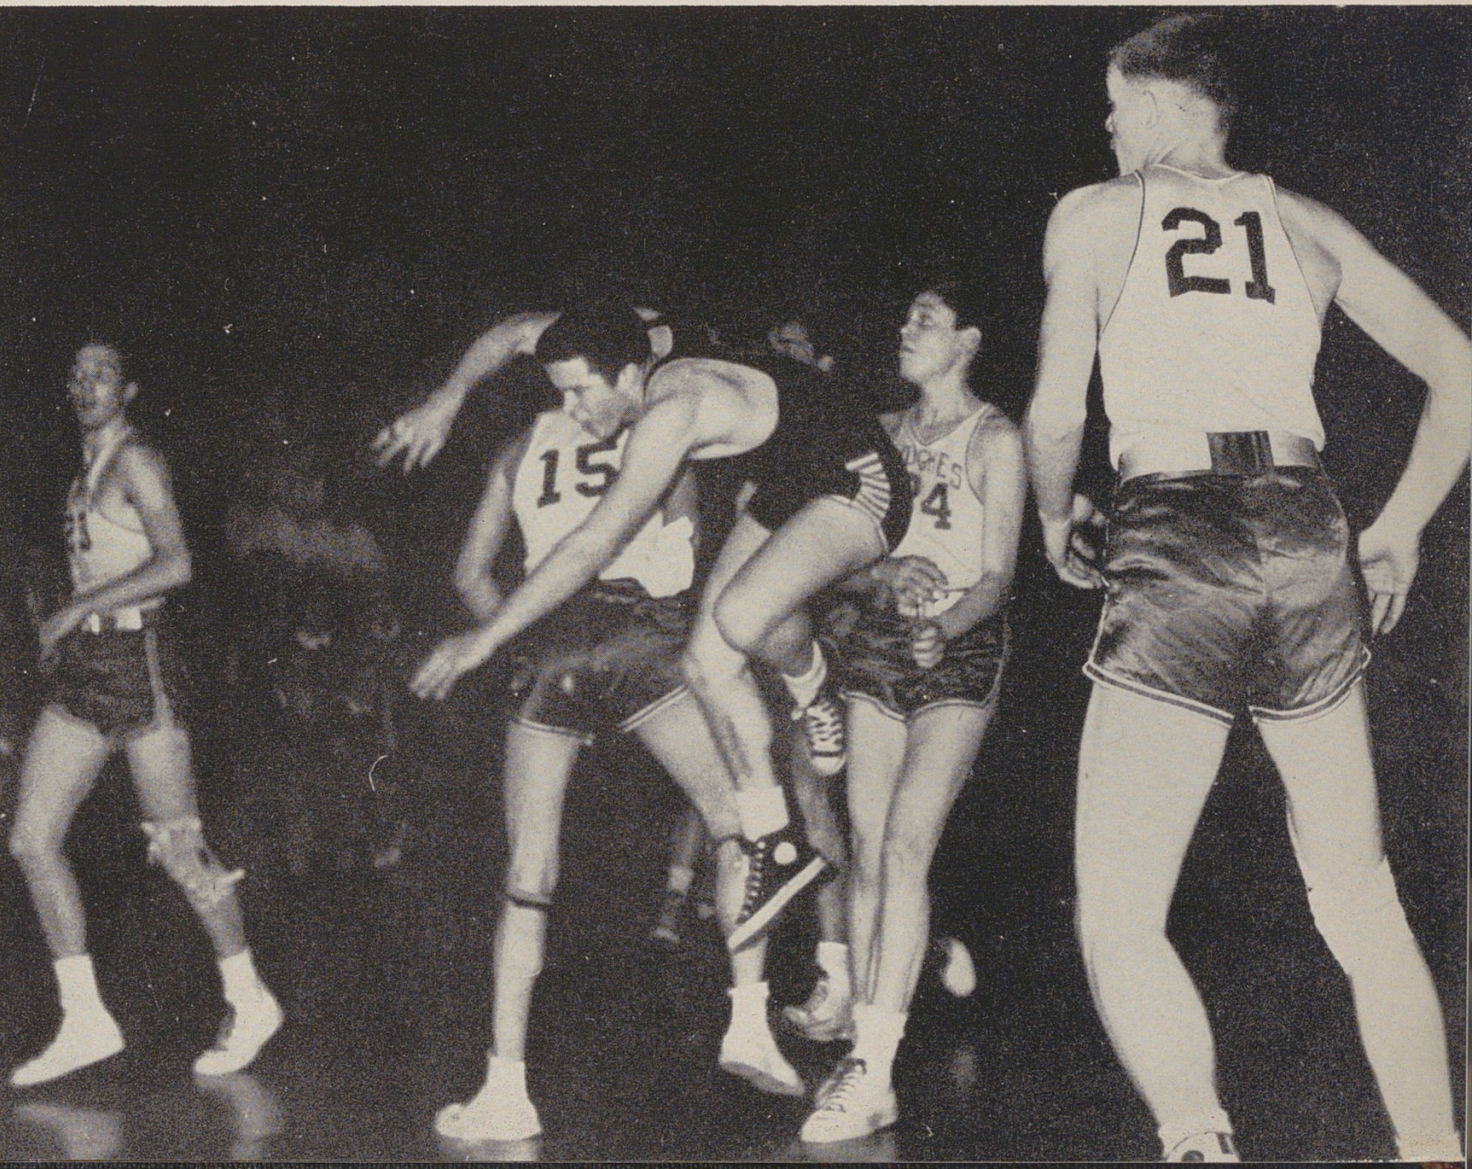

About the first of November the hoops in the Withrow gym began to vibrate under a steady rain of basketballs. In preparation for a tough seventeen-game schedule (plus two post-season games) Coach John Huheey was starting to build his '50-'51 cage crew around five returning lettermen. By evenly mixing a good fast break with a possession-type offense and by using an effective switching man-to-man defense, the Tigers rolled up a praiseworthy 12-7 record, winning six of their last seven contests. Center Dave Plunkett, playing the pivot, was the key man for manipulating rebounds and outlet passes into fast breaks. Much of the team's success was due to its control of both boards. The Orange and Black cagers bagged second place in the PHSL with an 8-2 league mark and were runners-up (by two slim points) in the four-team Norwood Tournament.

Through constant practice and determination, the '51 Withrow tanksters came up with a good senior team and an outstanding junior contingent. The seniors, in addition to breaking even in six dual meets, finished fourth in the PHSL and the juniors second in the junior loop. The leading senior swimmers were Tom Gillespie, Tad Schroeder, Ed Heiser, and Ed Geil. Mr. Wirth, swimming coach, is optimistic because of the fact that these four point-getters will still be around next year, along with Dick Cragg, Dan Elliot, Bob Kelly, and Dave Roebuck, junior squad standouts.

Although Mr. Sherman had but one letterman back this year, his varsity tennis team again ranked near the top. Prospects for district doubles, with chances of going on to the state tournament at Columbus, were Harry Lambert and Bob Surman. Two unheralded but important, skill-demanding sports at Withrow are bowling and golf. Both are coached by Mr. Owens. The bowling team, paced by Mike Grueninger, placed third in the PHSL. Mike's high single game was 235 and his average a sizzling 180. Another outstanding bowler, Joe Popp, rolled 595 for high three-game total. The golf team sought its sixth consecutive championship this spring. Dave Moore and Tom Gillespie headed a host of returning lettermen. May 1 saw the par-busters sporting a four and three mark.

continuing an accepted track tradition

Through careful and patient instruction, Mr. Nimmo and Mr. Higgins, track coaches, produced another crack track team. Led by Bob Hill and Leon Macklin in the hurdle events, Charlie Moore in the 100 and 200 yard dashes, Lucky Ingram and Bill Gray in the 440, Bill Drier in the half mile, Dick Miller in the high jump and broad jump, Bob Economou and Don Rogers in the discus throw, and Rogers in the shot put, the Tigers roared through their first meets with but one defeat and then took the first annual Withrow Relays. (Results are through April 27). The junior track team whose chief point getters were Zornes, Russell, Davis, Fey, and Donahue did well, winning the PHSL junior title.

Having lost nine lettermen and veteran pitcher Hal Broerman from the '50 OHIO CLASS A Championship club, baseball coach John Huheey found inexperience his main problem this spring. However, hurlers Dan Lamblin, Jack Borcharding, and Will Ernst formed a classy triumvirate. Bob Work also saw hill duty. Will Anshutz did the catching, while Ralph Nelsen (1B), Ron Ott (2B), Ted Carter (SS), and Bob Bick (3B) held down the infield posts. Charlie Brandenburg (LF), who also caught, Dan McGoron (CF), and Curly Willson (RF) roamed the outfield. Tom Lewis (2B), Bob Barbeau (C-OF), and fly chasers, Bob Jones, Dick Biedinger, and Ron Deller saw service, as did Tad Schroeder. As of May 1, the Tigers had an 8-4 mark, and Mr. Melvin Russell's Reserve team had compiled a 3-0 record.

And now turn to the largest organization in Withrow, one that provides wholesome entertainment, encourages good sportsmanship, and makes for better character development, G.A.A. Established in 1927 by Miss Taylor, the Girls Athletic Association has grown into one of the best-organized extra-curricular clubs. The 1950-51 season found Miss Blasberg managing hockey, spring archery, and Bowling Club; Mrs. Lally leading volleyball and Outing Club; softball, fall archery, and Dance Club engaging Mrs. Sallwasser and Miss Robinson directing basketball and Dolphin Club. The dependable officers of this club are Janet Bremer, President; Betty McCartney, Vice-President; Marilyn Shepler, Treasurer; Carolyn Fisher, Corresponding Secretary; Libby Curtis, Recording Secretary; and Meredith Jones, Historian. Officers are nominated in early spring by members when an election party climaxes fervent campaigning by ardent politicians.

The 1950-51 hockey season started off with a bang on September 19 and ended with class games on November 13. At the beginning the weather was wonderful but, when hockey Play Day rolled around, the invitational games had to be postponed twice because of snowstorms. This year 156 girls came out for hockey, freshmen topping the list with 49. Each girl had to have three practices to be eligible for participation on any one of the numerous intramural teams.

Fall brings not only rustling leaves but a bustling hockey season with charging sticks, protective shin guards and flying pucks.

Volleyball action—accelerated energy.

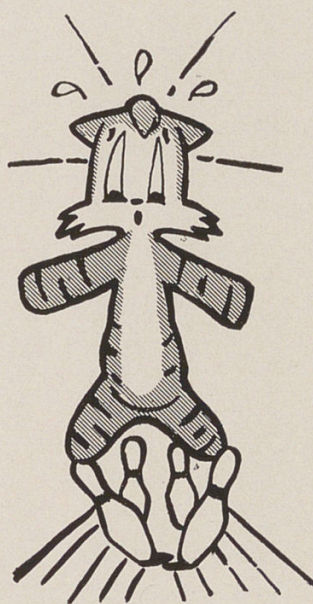

Roaming hikers rest while winding roads beckon them on.

Out of 24 teams, guess who won G.A.A. volleyball tournament for the third consecutive year? Yes, you're right; it was the Mighty Mice, six girls out of 300. Turning from the cozy indoors to the colorful outdoors observe twenty-one happy hikers trudging along after Mrs. Lally, the spark plug of G. A.A. Outing Club. Every Saturday morning these energetic girls travel over towering hills and sloping doles, allegedly enjoying every inch of their pedestrian odyssey.

Every other year the Dolphin Club presents a top notch swimming pageant. In 1950-51 Miss Mabel Robinson, sponsor, and "Honey" Simmons, president, helped the natators swim through a course in life saving and water safety. In June this fishiest of clubs held a picnic, strangely minus sardines.

Practicing every Thursday after school, the sixty-nine Chorean Dance Clubbers learn elementary steps and poses which become aesthetic dances under the instruction of Mrs. Sallwasser and Gayle Eason. This year a very successful concert, "Dancing Through the Months," was presented. The girls enjoyed performing for the Latin Club Banquet and National Art Convention at the Netherland Plaza. Included in the year's schedule was a Dance Symposium at Hughes where an experienced leader introduced new techniques and variations of fundamental steps. The program was ended with a picnic at Handle Bar Ranch.

Mrs. Stella Green Kreuzman

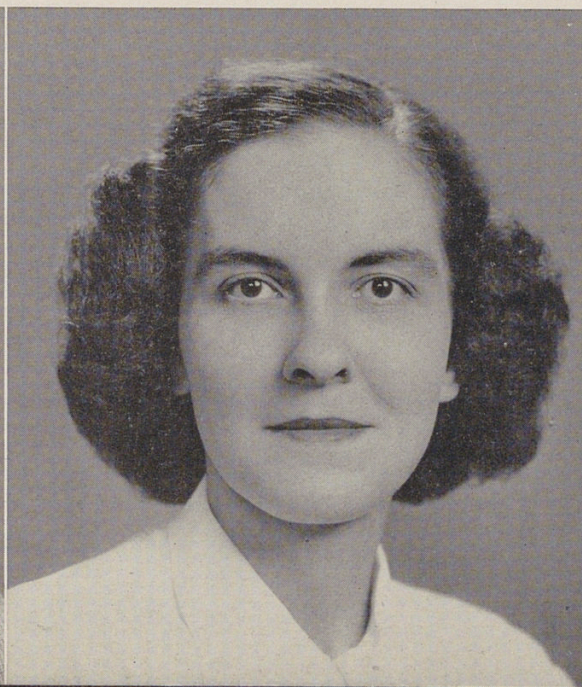

In 1924 an outstanding art teacher and U. C. graduate arrived at Withrow where she soon became annual art staff adviser. For the next seventeen years the yearbook boomed, receiving the All-American rating. Annual satellites regretfully inform the student body that Mrs. Stella Green Kreuzman is leaving her post as annual art adviser. Others have come and gone; but she will always be remembered. Learning the tricks of the trade, Mr. Pfister plans to succeed Mrs. Kreuzman. Mr. Rhollans is kept busy with his money-mongers campaigning for annual sales and handling finances. The literary fledglings, supervised by Mrs. Davis, write all copy, captions, and headlines. Managing the business crew is the task of "Doc" Van Billiard. Leading the eighty members of the staff that produce the Tower News are Isabel King, editor-in-chief, and Mr. Renshaw, who also juggles finances to meet publication costs. Next in line, the page editors and their assistants plan the pages and give the reporters assignments. Even with Mr. Renshaw's ever-lasting teasing, the staff has the paper ready for its deadline, and Izzy begins her Thursday night headache all over again. After she proofreads and checks the work, it is sent on a last, quick trip to the printer.

He and cartoonist Bill Drier furnish the pictorial material for Tower News, while Marilyn Ratcliffe, advertising manager, dreams up those promotion schemes. Senior Choir, conducted by Mr. Martin, provides ideal entertainment for the student body. Highlights on the choir's schedule were "A Nightingale of Bethlehem" at the Christmas Assembly and Tchaikowsky's "Italian Caprice" in the Minstrels. The Girls' Glee Club, which is the oldest musical group at Withrow, takes part in various radio broadcasts, the Spring Concert and the Christmas Assembly. The singers are trying to cultivate a further interest in the ever-changing musical world. Though a newer group, the Boys' Glee Club is one of Withrow's most promising musical organizations. The club tries to provide recreational singing for the boys; they take part in the Christmas Assembly and form the black-faced chorus in the annual Minstrel Show. Both of these groups are sponsored by Mr. Martin, a top-notch choral director.

The fifty junior and senior boys of Philologia gather for a business meeting, both humorous and serious extemporaneous speeches, and panel discussions on current affairs to develop proficiency in parliamentary procedure. Scribblers, girls' literary society of Withrow fosters an interest in literature and encourages original production. These thirty juniors and seniors meet to hear book reviews and to give original plays. A book is presented to a meritorious senior on Award Day. Miss Wood and Mr. Srofe hold the responsible positions of advisers to these two societies honoring star English students.

Greek gods and goddesses parade before members of Gens Togata, revealing their identity by their dress or their actions. The members, who are Latin students, meet on the third Tuesday of each month to enjoy programs of ancient Greek and Roman history, songs, and plays. The year is climaxed by the annual banquet where the food and style in which it is presented always create considerable interest. Gens Togata was founded in 1931 for the purpose of learning to appreciate the Latin language. Sponsors, Miss Grove and Mrs. Maish, and president, Pat Thomas, guide this active group, which even has its own club song.

Spanish Club "comprende" the meaning of friendship between countries. By studying the language and customs of Spanish-speaking countries, "El Club Espanol," is learning to understand and respect the people of Spain, South America, and Cuba. Under the experienced eye of Miss Eppinger, the group has rapidly become one of Withrow's more popular clubs. President Tom Puroff helped plan the holiday parties and a trip to the Spanish Inn where members enjoyed the spicy food—ordered in the Spanish lingo of the conquistadores.

Everyone has seen the local muscle men displaying Withrow varsity sport letters but few observers know that these boys are eligible to become members of Tiger Club. The athletes, led by Charlie Brandenburg, excel in all types of sports. Would you like to participate in a potato chip drive? You would? Then join Alpha-Y, for this is one of their yearly activities. The club, a division of the Y.M.C.A., is sponsored by Miss Graham.

Two service groups are Beta Hi-Y and Tower-Y, organized to help the community's needy. Tower-Y gives children's parties and sells Christmas cards and paper. An older group here, its junior and senior girls are led by Alberta Richardson, president, and Miss Graham, adviser. The active senior boys of Beta Hi-Y sell cokes at games to provide a scholarship for a worthy senior. A feature of the year's program is speakers of many faiths, introduced by Bill Holloman, president, and Mr. Vordenberg, adviser.

"Hello, Marge? This is Jane. Did you hear the latest? John isn't taking Esther to the formal Saturday night. He asked Betty, of all people. Can you imagine? That conceited snob! I heard she hadn't a thing to wear . . . No, I haven't got a date yet. I'd love to go with Bill, the center on our team but . . . Oh, I saw the cutest little number in Shillito's last week . . . Yeah, that's the one I mean, with the white net stole. It's only $89.95.

"Father thinks it's awfully expensive, but I think it's a real bargain. Maybe Mom can break him. I simply have to have it. Gosh, I wish somebody would call. It's only a week away and I'm sort of worried . . . You're going with Dick Morgan, the frat president? Golly gee, how colossal . . . See you there—I hope! So long." Ring-g-g . . . "Hello—Oh, hello, Bill . . . No, nothing special . . . Jean's number? Oh . . . it's—it's 7697 . . . You're welcome."

Sue rides high in the acrobatic finale of the Teen Tone's Specialty for Minstrel Tryouts, "Go West, Little Girl, Go West."

For weeks the committees have worked, planned, dreamed, and practiced. The big moment finally arrives. The curtain rises; a feeling of tension surrounds the performers as they gaze out beyond the footlights into the inky blackness which surrounds the faces of the audience. Will the combined efforts of teachers, students, stage hands, and cast turn out another triumph? The question is soon answered by the loud applause at the finish. What a thrill it is to realize that another successful production has been completed.

This Portuguese conga-line from "My Sister Eileen" is just one of the adventures relished by the two sisters in New York.

spotlights gleam on powdered faces as curtains open

Through a window of their flat, a cop "clues" the sisters on the big city.

In rollicking incidents like the Conga line of Portuguese sailors and the continual blustering entrance of the "Wreck" into the basement apartment of the girls, "My Sister Eileen" unfolded. No one will forget the daring Russian girl, the irate landlord, and Eileen herself. The hilarious story of the two girls who invaded New York for the sake of a career provided many a rib-tickler for the audience. The most successful play in years for Withrow Players, it was presented the second week in December.

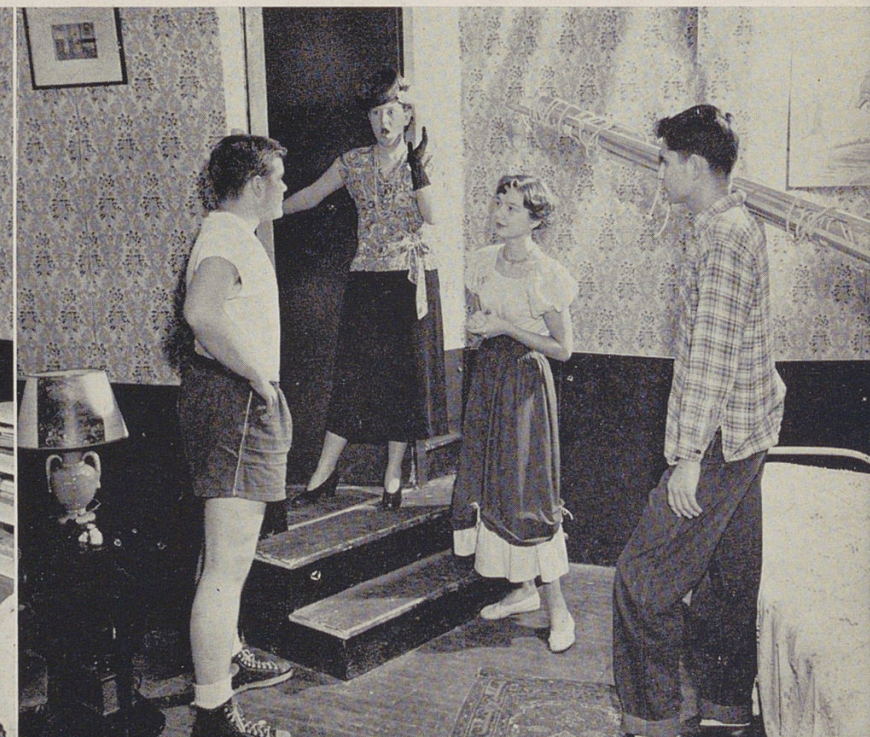

Such figures as a tyrannical landlord and a melodramatic Russian lugging an overcome girl step through rickety door.

Behind the set, members who walked by the basement window had to struggle to ignore the teasing, upturned faces of other hams lurking below the walk. The play once over, the cast members and all who helped relaxed to make the afterplay party a success. Climax of the evening was the direct hit of a thickly-coated mustard sandwich in the ex-Wreck's face. Asleep that night, tired thespians had sweet dreams of their new bank account, in the black.

The eccentric characters who shuffle through the witty scenes of "My Sister Eileen" bring with them indescribable turmoil.

A good-natured competitive spirit has become traditional between Withrow Players and Thalian Dramatic Club. The play put on this year by Thalian was "Our Miss Brooks." Other Thalian activities included a Hallowe'en and theater party, and a pep assembly. Members concluded the year with a picnic. Miss Rosenberger lent her stage experience as sponsor of the club, while Marilyn Stitts reigned as president.

"Really, I think you'd make the most wonderful British gentleman."

Rollicking laughter filled the auditorium April 6 and 7 as Withrow students viewed the Thalian presentation, "Our Miss Brooks." Miss Brooks, a role based on the famous radio personality, snagged everybody's line with her befuddled efforts to produce a melodrama of the Far East; to promote marriage between the gym coach and herself; and to play cupid for two of her cherished pupils.

"Our Miss Brooks" soon discovers that English, dramatics, basketball, romances and temperamental actresses do not mix.

Presenting skits for a football and a basketball assembly started off another successful year for Thalian Dramatic Club. The Thespians were occupied with the presentation of monologues, excerpts from plays, and special sketches, as well as with diligent rehearsals for their public play "Our Miss Brooks"—all a part of learning the essentials of good acting. Successful Hallowe'en and Christmas parties, a cast party after the play, and picnics were also on their agenda, adding many happy moments to their well-filled schedule.

Heartaches and headaches dissolve to make "the play within a play" a success for the hams of Miss Brooks' English class.

Outstanding in the intricate mechanism controlling the 1951 Withrow Minstrel show are (above) "Smittie", Nancy Brown that polished quality which makes Withrow's annual show tops is due, not only to the supervision of the school's maestro, but also to the persistence and frenzied labor of the many other people who become just as nervous as the actual performers when, with their last rehearsal over, they find themselves upon the stage as the first of six nights of magic arrives.

Selections mastered, instruments tuned, and the Presentation Orchestra is ready for its part in the Minstrels.

Chosen for art and color in playing, the outstanding musicians of band and orchestra form Presentation Orchestra. This unit accompanies all Minstrel acts to give the production that extra sparkle. Striving for the perfection that comes only with practice, this group works long hours after school. The Warsaw Concerto and Pacific Panorama are two specialties which brought stardom to this year's presentation; like all other numbers, they were arranged by "Smittie."

These pert performing pretties click out a shooting step while the soloist bursts out into "Ragtime Cowboy Joe."

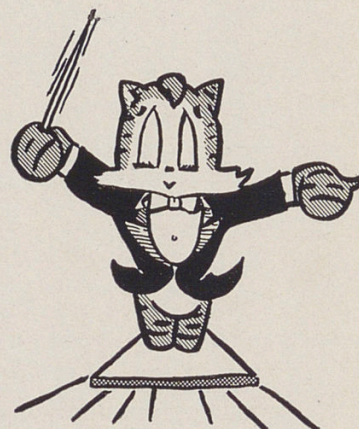

This is no trifling contribution, as the W.P.O. backs up nearly every act in the production.

Cowgals sport azure blouses and contrasting dark blue shorts with white jackets and "ten gallon" hats, as their taps keep perfect time in West's "Ragtime Cowboy Joe." The hoofers also clogged to "Memories," "Marshmallow World," and "The Charleston." These girls pass two trials; one to become a pony, the other to make one of the six show numbers.

makes cow girls buck while others "do it again."

In "Let's Do It Again" the snappy opening number, these ten high stepping ponies give the show an eye-appealing kickoff.

Glancing over 1951 Minstrels, one realizes what a great achievement the show really is—the hours of work behind it, the spirit of both cast and crews, and the tremendous output of talent and leadership required. "Italian Caprice" is artistically performed under arrangement and direction of Mr. Martin. Joy Gilbert with her novel "Anvil Chorus," Alphonso Tevis and his memorable rendition of "Without A Song," and Gayle Eason in peppy "Jazz Pizzicato" are just a few unforgettable soloists. The ushers, a troupe of good-looking young men and women, contribute their bit of festivity before the show. Adding a flash of color, Indians beat out a primitive rhythm in authentic costumes. Male chorus provides a melodious background for numbers and gets to watch bevvies of girls sing and dance. "Rosie" did a noble job with hilarious skits about a famous voice and a court scene.

"We Are The Minstrelers," rings out through the spacious auditorium when the complete cast assembles for the finale.

"We are the Minstrelers, bold dashing Minstrelers." The brisk refrain of the grand finale when the entire cast steps on stage for a last bow to the vociferous audience is as stirring as that moment on opening night when house lights dim, drums rumble and the ponies whirl on stage. On the other side of the spots are the indispensable crews. Behind the sets managing lights, properties, and the curtain are Mr. Pfister and his agile, reliable stage crew. Waiting for their on-stage cues are the adagio duo and two solo tap dances. Mr. Gates, Interlocutors Srofe and Koch and the endmen busily discuss plans for those between-number anecdotes.

Success Story—American Style

Just seventy-five years ago the first spoken message was carried over a few feet of wire, connecting two crude telephones. In the United States today, 173 million conversations daily speed over 152 million miles of wire connecting 43 million telephones.

First regarded as a mere toy, the telephone in the U. S. today is an 11 billion dollar business, owned by a million stockholders and provides jobs for three-quarters of a million persons.

The industry is big because America is big and requires a huge communications system to keep the wheels of commerce, and society generally, running smoothly and swiftly—yet its cost is low, within the reach of most families.

This is just a typical American success story, possible only under our system of free enterprise which permits free men and women to exercise individual initiative.

TODAY

Not so many years ago people were still washing clothes in a tub and heating water on a stove. Once in a great while an opera company or a circus would come to town to offer some amusements, but the tired housewife was just too tired to be bothered about them. We of the modern day and age are much more fortunate. We press a button and our washing is done. Press another button and our clothes are dried. If it is a warm shower or bath we want just turn a knob and hot water is there.

Amusements? How about stepping into the living-room and turning on that T.V. set? All the best shows are there literally in your living-room. Maybe you would rather listen to the radio or phonograph, just turn it on.

Modern science has invented these marvelous machines for us to use. The Phil Stewart Electric Shop sells these modern wonders at low and convenient prices. Why not make your next electrical purchase at the
