

Starting early in the previous summer, the Tower News Staff, consisting of editorial and business divisions, pondered over a striking sales campaign, for the coming fall. Under the guidance of editor, Mike Doench and adviser, Mr. Renshaw, the members put across the "Big Cheese" slogan and the assembly depicting school life without advisers. That netted them the greatest number of subscriptions yet. This accomplished, the staff turned to the hectic business of editing a paper each week. Every afternoon Room 106 is bursting with students, conversation, and confusion. The work seems to be endless as each page must be finished on its appointed day. This usually involves scrambling for polls and stories to fill up holes, some of which are quite large. Two all-school dances, the Football Open House and Leap Year Leap, sponsored by Tower News, brought in much needed revenue. Toward the end of the year the group planned a banquet in honor of the Seniors and announced next year's staff.

Tower News "biz" staff expertly juggles finances to push Withrow's school paper out of the red.
