

Situated in this utopian landscape is our Alma Mater, encircled by pathways which all seem to lead to the tower, symbolic of the never-ending, but always rewarding search for a higher education.