

Juniors

From the moment they make their debut as upper classmen and assume the dignity suitable to their station, the juniors know they must endeavor to prove themselves worthy of this status. With a whirl of rings, proms, and the more serious facet of career conferences, the year drifts by and they have started paving roads of progress.

Boisterous junior boosters cheer ecstatically as they urge the Tigers onward to victory.

Upper classmen at last!