

One of the Future Merchandisers' Club meetings is held at a local department store. Getting information about this vocation first-hand proves to be a very interesting experience and an invaluable aid to these girls who wish to become merchandisers.

first rap of the gavel, new ideas are "Calling all Home Ec. Club members to an important meeting today!" This meeting might be one at which these girls make plans for helping needy children or complete the ideas for their tour through the factories of prominent industries.

The children shown here, have on their countenances, looks of great happiness. It seems that the members of Home Ec. Club are accomplishing the task of entertaining the youngsters.

←
B. Allen; C. Anderson; B. Bennett; D. Bowman; J. Booth; J. Boeckler; L. Castor; S. Davis; J. Dickson; J. Dinkleman; M. Eggerding; S. Gerard; M. Harris; C. Haynes; S. Hoffman; L. Howell; E. Heis; J. Hayes; S. Jones; M. Johnson; M. Kahn; J. Knight; P. Kroenicher; J. Lewis; B. Lewis; P. Lackner; L. Leshner; L. Mark; E. Mensing; G. Meehan; C. Meecham; S. Mundy; G. McHugh; M. McClanahan; B. Dettit; R. Petroff; A. Poole; P. Punkari; P. Palmer; P. Rose; S. Reed; N. Schrader; D. Schrader; S. Shirk; M. Shouse; N. Schira; N. Smith; S. Stoll; A. Stansford; S. Simpson; J. Taylor; S. Tieman; R. Walker; V. Wheeler; J. White; M. Wingerter.

