

Alpha - Y

The Alpha-Y Teens, a branch of Y.W.C.A. is a nation-wide organization of girls who devote themselves to the exalted task of living up to the ideals of the Christian faith. Several times each year, chosen representatives from all the Alpha-Y groups in the Cincinnati public schools meet with Miss Eleanor Graham, their capable adviser, for an inter-club council, where they discuss problems.

Row 1—G. Bloomfield. Row 2—N. Gomien; L. Mark. Row 3—J. Cowan; P. Lackner; L. Burleson. Row 4—J. Howison; G. Geildreich; J. Baessler; A. Farhney. Row 5—H. Collard; P. Dreihaus; S. Gerald; J. Boeckler; A. Davis. Row 6—S. Boggs; P. Muncy; M. Kinninger; S. Stoll; W. Edwards; M. Ammann.

votes are taken, documents compiled,

The girls of Alpha-Y celebrated Halloween with a combined party and initiation for the new members who joined the group in October.

