

"Full speed ahead"—"second page deadline tonight" are familiar words to the sixty harassed students on the Tower News Staff. Their year's hard toil is almost forgotten when Tower News receives one of the highest ratings for secondary school papers. Two staffs work on the paper—the News Staff writes the news and the Business Staff manages the money and advertisements. Clara Sue, with her assistant editors, reporters, and co-workers, sees to it that the populace of Withrow is well informed about important school events and is reminded ahead of time of approaching exams and future holidays. The ideas of Student Council, typified by such slogans as "Don't Gum up the Works," are carried out and made popular by the paper. Every year, in the school gym, a dance is given. This year it was a turnabout dance, the "Cardiac Capers", held in February. The highlight is the Tower News Banquet when the next year's staff is traditionally announced.

Tower News Business Staff. Seated—D. Devore; G. Wolfe; J. Louiso. Standing—N. Currens; L. Ladley; P. Snyder; C. Weber; R. Rippey; D. Lerner.

mechanisms of journalistic skills,

Page Editors. Row 1—A. Halverstadt; R. Karnes; C. Finn; B. Taylor; J. Davis; R. Tartar; D. Ward; A. Lamblin. Row 2—D. Bentley; N. Streit; J. Harrison; J. Gilbert; M. Pace; D. Zschau; M. Setter; D. Souder. Row 3—M. Brown; I. Lerner; B. Hummel.

