

Walter Penn is brought down the rough way.

Perhaps the biggest oddity came in the Central game. With two minutes left in the game the line took over the back field. Herb Manning was quarter back, Gordon Greene fullback, and Larry Lyons and Don Currens filled in the half back positions. This line-up managed to drive from the 19 to the 4 yard line. What a sharp team!

Eager anticipators cram the gate enthusiastically.
