

"Fore" echoes over the course as the ball zooms overhead bound for the green. The black and orange golf team is coached by "Andy" Owens and sparked by player Glen Burrell. Tryouts for the team are held in the early part of April. The selection of players is based on their record in the screenings. Golf is a game based strictly on skill and judgement (luck helps). The Tigers always prove to have more than needed of both. The Withrow golfers have had an impressive record in PHSL competition.
