

"Cross-sticks, bully" was shouted often by these hockey aspirants as the freshies won over the sophomores.

G. A. A.

Balmy autumn winds find some invigorated G.A.A.ers pushing down the hockey field to make a goal. Opposition is stiff as the backfielders back up their forward line. But then at last a goal is made and again the centers bully at the 50-yard line. Before the winter's driving breath had dwindled play to a standstill, a freshman team captured the lead, while the seniors succeeded in increasing their renown as they grasped the coveted title of class team champions.

gals go "all out" in

Deft participants skillfully dribble the puck as they enact a carefully planned hockey play. In another field two G.A.A. freshmen teams battle it out in a close quarter.

