

The pitcher winds up for a fast curve and a swift double play is attempted at third base by the skilled athletes of G.A.A.

Every spring a young G.A.A.er's fancy fondly turns to thoughts of baseball, one of the most popular spring-time sports. Friendly rivalry as well as a spirit of comradeship is developed among the girls as their respective teams vie for homers and the exalted G.A.A. championship.

they prove themselves masters of

