

All the snappy routines of Ann Satterfield, Al Brockman, and Joy Gilbert never fail to dazzle an audience.

"A couple of swells" and skits always provide a spice in the entertainment and a hearty laugh for all. Minstrels would not be Minstrels without good songs, the floppy bow ties, and crazy antics of the endmen.

