

Thalian Dramatic Club

This unique showcase display designed by the members of Thalian Dramatic Club, captured the interest of many prospective stage fanatics.

Ranking among the leaders of high school dramatic organizations, Thalian Dramatic Club just naturally has a reputation to uphold. Therefore, every production presented by Thalian is anticipated with great eagerness. Thalian, in return, is always looking for the best possible play to produce and the most adept performers for it. Audience and critic reaction shows that usually this quest is fulfilled. Jack Louiso, the president, has led the group during several parties, meetings every month, and community projects. Their production, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," the riotous times of two flappers abroad, by Cornelia Otis Skinner, filled all expectations.
