Tri Chi, a symbol of citizenship, companionship, and character, has instilled its motto in the heart of each of its brothers. All their efforts are based on a desire to fulfill their goals of high merit, worthy achievement, and constant improvement. This year some needy family enjoyed a merrier Christmas as a result of the baskets of food and gifts donated by an anonymous Santa Claus who looked suspiciously like a Tri Chi representative. Vying for the Interfraternity Athletic League championship and sponsoring diverse parties and dances add spice to school life. With the Mothers' Club as their sponsor, the forty-eight members, noted for their ability to excel in any field they choose, have a compassed chart to live by. Their lucky star still shines bright.

Intramural Champs! The lofty minded spirits of Tri Chi soared as the swains outvied other frats to earn the cup.
