

C. McVicker, Pres.; D. Lally, V. Pres.; D. Gulden, Treas.; C. Gentry, Rec. Sec.; J. Huber, Corr. Sec.; R. Matzenauer, Hist.; E. Wood, Sgt.-at-Arms; D. Brandhorst; J. Bryson; B. Caid; R. Corcoran; J. Cross; T. Deiseman; B. Donahoe; B. Dyer; B. Evans; G. Jarmen; F. Johnson; K. Johnson; R. Kidwell; A. Kuehen; D. Lieman; B. Martinana; B. Marvin; D. McCabe; L. Niedermeyer; D. Stephens; D. Schrufer; G. Stinematz; E. Venable; C. Wood.

Throughout its fifty-eight years of existence T. O. has succeeded in establishing brotherhood and life-long friendships. Triginti Optimi, meaning "The thirty best," with its newly formed Mothers' Club, has this year staged various festivities like their annual "Black Cat Ball" and the "Blue Moon" semi-formal. These high-lighted other diverse projects, completing a full year.

social life. They manage to lead an

Triginti Optimi

Chapter IV
Date of Organization:
1895
Colors: Red and Gold
Membership: 39

