"Blue and silver we pledge to you our hearts and voices singing out true—in friendship, in kindness." These words symbolize the feelings that the Altruist girls carry in their hearts. In working with others, each girl gains valuable experience that can't be measured monetarily.

One of the numerous tasks undertaken by the girls of A. X. D. was a silver anniversary party. In order to obtain all the names and addresses of the former members of Altruist numerous letters and telephone calls were made. The time spent was repaid by the immense pleasure of everyone who attended the party.
