Since 1926, blue and gold, the striking colors of B.O.X. have been the emblem of one of Withrow's outstanding sororities. The variety of its projects has included contributions to the cancer and cerebral palsy funds, aiding a needy family at Christmas, and packing Red Cross boxes for Korea. Distinctive parties and dances characterize the multitude of activities which also include a tea, slumber parties, and a banquet in honor of B.O.X. parents. Always a leading sorority because of the energetic and ceaseless spirit of each of its members, Beta Omega Chi excels in all of its many undertakings, and is indeed much admired.
