

International Baccalaureate

2001 IB Diploma Candidates: Christopher Washington, Peter Sanders, and Kristen Gaither-Thompson.

The Withrow IB program is one of the more than 1000 International Baccalaureate World Schools located in nearly 100 countries around the world and is known for its rigorous academic standards. The work of students participating in IB courses is assessed by more than 250 IB examiners throughout the world. Students in the IB program have the opportunity to earn college credit or advanced standing in college for their work. The IB program is available to 11th and 12th graders enrolled in the International Studies Academy.
