

Advising frats and sororities on their problems is a big job for Miss Tilford.

For many pupils, school does not end at three P.M. Participation in after-hours, extra-curricular activities, like Minstrels, and the now officially-recognized fraternities and sororities, adds zest to the green years of alert Withrowites. Activities provide their members with fun, responsibility, and the joy of accomplishment.

← When "Smittie" composes, the roof could fall in; he'd hardly be disturbed.

but the important social events are not forgotten