

Class Day! How many connotations can these words have? For the Juniors, they mean realization of an almost ended high school career. Sixteen receive the red carnations of Dux Femina and twelve become members of Sigma Gamma; the Harvard and Columbia books are presented to two boys tops in scholarship and character. For the Seniors, four years of hard work and development are completed successfully.

are climaxed in 1950 by the trek around the track.