

The stimulus for our growth at Withrow is provided by the administration. Through sound counseling, and sympathetic understanding, the newcomer is able to establish a firm foundation upon which to build. The friendliness and sincerity of purpose displayed by the administration permits us, the students, to improve ourselves scholastically, culturally, physically and socially throughout "The Green Years" at Withrow.

Our understanding administration

