

"Foiled, blast it!" the rival cager seems to remark as Don Miller drives in for a bucket.

Basketballs fill

Around the early part of December a sudden frenzy to push a leather sphere through a hoop suspended ten feet from the floor on a back-board sweeps the land. For three action-packed months, basketball, with its long shots, pivot shots, tip-ins, foul shots, rebounds, fancy dribbling, skillful passing, speed and aggressiveness, cheers and jeers, holds the spotlight. This year's Tiger quintet rolled up a creditable record, its fighting spirit providing Withrow followers with plenty to cheer about.
