

their preferred skill,

G.A.A. hikers really have what it takes when they get up in the morning with the birds and walk, walk, walk! The girls appreciate a soft chair or maybe even a bed after a long "trek" over hills, through woods, and across rivers.

If you happen to stop by a Norwood bowling alley on a Thursday after school, you will undoubtedly see Withrow's feminine bowlers. The versatile "alley cats" chalk up strikes and spares—to spare.

Smiles and miles pass Saturday mornings quickly for these tireless hikers.

Pull 'em up, shove 'em up, any way to get 'em up! All help along the way.

Why the serious look, Helen? Aiming for a strike or spare? Either will help.